Sympathies from <essft.com> go to all, affected by the cowardly act perpetuated on 9/11/01. Fly your flag, give blood, always be vigilant, and NEVER give up your Freedom!

" If you give up a freedom, for the sake of a security, you will have neither" - Ben Franklin

In the wake of this tragic event, Handgun Control and now joined by the A.M.A.
have quadrupled their efforts to remove all firearms from the hands of citizens of this country. In the name of 'security'.

NOTES: From; CHUCK URLAND

We ran the Keystone Field Trial on Sept. 15 & 16, 2001 despite the horrific events that unfolded during the week. Although our hearts were heavy with grief, we decided to proceed with the running of this event to celebrate life and to make a statement that we, as a nation, are strong and will not be repressed by anybody.

In conjunction with the field trial, we normally hold a fund raising "hat-pool" raffle to help off-set the cost of conducting the event. In light of the unfolding tragedy, we thought it was appropriate to donate the entire proceeds from this raffle to the American Red Cross to assist with the disaster relief efforts.

4th	Denalisunflo's Busy (Busy) O. RE French H. Randy Curtis

NOTES: Thanks John Lindsay, The Tilden Valley ESSC held its fall Field Trial on the farm of Archie and Carol Hendrick, at Sundell MI. Far enough North that you knew when you were done you had to go south, because Lake Superior is just damned cold this time of year. This is a great piece of grounds, with variation of terrain and cover to challenge most Dogs.

NOTES: from Cheryl Sligar. The Utah SSC held its 2001 fall trial at Willard Bay, near Ogden, UT. The cover was wild crested wheat, mixed with other wild grasses and sage brush. The weather was very warm, in the high 80's both days. Dogs were kept watered down by the handlers. A tub filled with water was provided by the club, which was a great help keeping the dogs cooler, and no incidence of over heating was reported. Judges both days were from California.

NOTES: Thanks, Debbie Schoene: The East Central Iowa English Springer Spaniel Club held its annual trial this past weekend, Nov. 17 & 18, near Iowa City, Iowa. As usual, the fields were perfect.....long courses of rolling brome. The weather was perfect too, tho a bit too warm on Saturday with temps near 70. Sunday was cooler with cloud cover and sprinkles of rain. The members of this club are always great hosts, ensuring that trialers are fortified throughout the day with Marguerite Johnson's homemade cakes and muffins. ;-)
