Dear Fellow Field Trialers:

The Tamarin Spaniel Club cordially invites you to our 63rd annual AKC licensed spring trial, March 1st, 2nd, and 3rd, 2019 at Gray Lodge Wildlife Refuge west of Gridley, CA. This year we will continue with three days of field trials at our annual event. We are pleased to have Dan Lussen and Bob Davis as our judges for the Open all-age stake Friday, March 1st. Dan Lussen and Michael Pollack will judge the all-age stakes on March 2nd and 3rd.
A visitor permit envelope is required to be filled out. A $4 fee is only required if you do not have a valid California hunting and/or fishing license. See the details below.

Field trial headquarters will be at the Gray Lodge check-in station and parking lot. Pet friendly hotels: The Gridley Inn and RV Park (the RV Park offers full hookups) (530) 846-4520, Econo Lodge (530-674-1592), Days Inn (530- 674-1711) in Yuba City, and America's Best Value Inn and Suites (530-533-7070) in Oroville.
Reserve rooms early due to evacuees from The Camp Fire staying at local hotels.

Our banquet and raffle will be Saturday night. The no host bar opens at 6:30PM with dinner at 7:00 PM at the Moose Hall located at 1533 CA-99, Gridley, CA 95948. Entrees this year are $30 for either prime rib or scampi. Your selection must be noted on your reservation form. We must have an accurate count by Feb. 20th. Awards for Open and Puppy Stakes (Friday), and Amateur and Puppy Stakes (Saturday) will be presented at our banquet. Open Stake awards will be presented at the grounds following Sunday's event.

Lunch will be offered each day on the trial grounds for a nominal fee.

Emergency contacts will be printed on the back page of your catalog and also posted at the trial headquarters. For assistance during the trial, cellular phones will be available.

If you have any further questions, please feel free to call one of us.

Sincerely,

Todd Fearon
Field Trial Chair

Permit Required
If you bring a valid California hunting and/or fishing license no fee is required, but you must still fill out a parking permit envelope.
All Participants need a daily permit which can be obtained at the field trial headquarters.
A one-day pass without a valid California hunting and/or fishing license is $4.00.
