WELCOME STATEMENT

We have a great weekend planned with two Springer open stakes, two Cocker open stakes and an amateur. Treat yourselves to 300+ acres of great cover along the banks of the Missouri River. Land owner has agreed to allow dry camping on the property/small fee applies. Contact Dominique Savoie for details. The property includes 1.5 miles of river bottom for fun and challenging third series and open brush lands where we will host the series work. Water series available at the discretion of the judges. We have a welcome dinner planned, again contact Dominique personally for details. dominique@rockisland.com Hope to see you all here.

TAILGATE INFORMATION

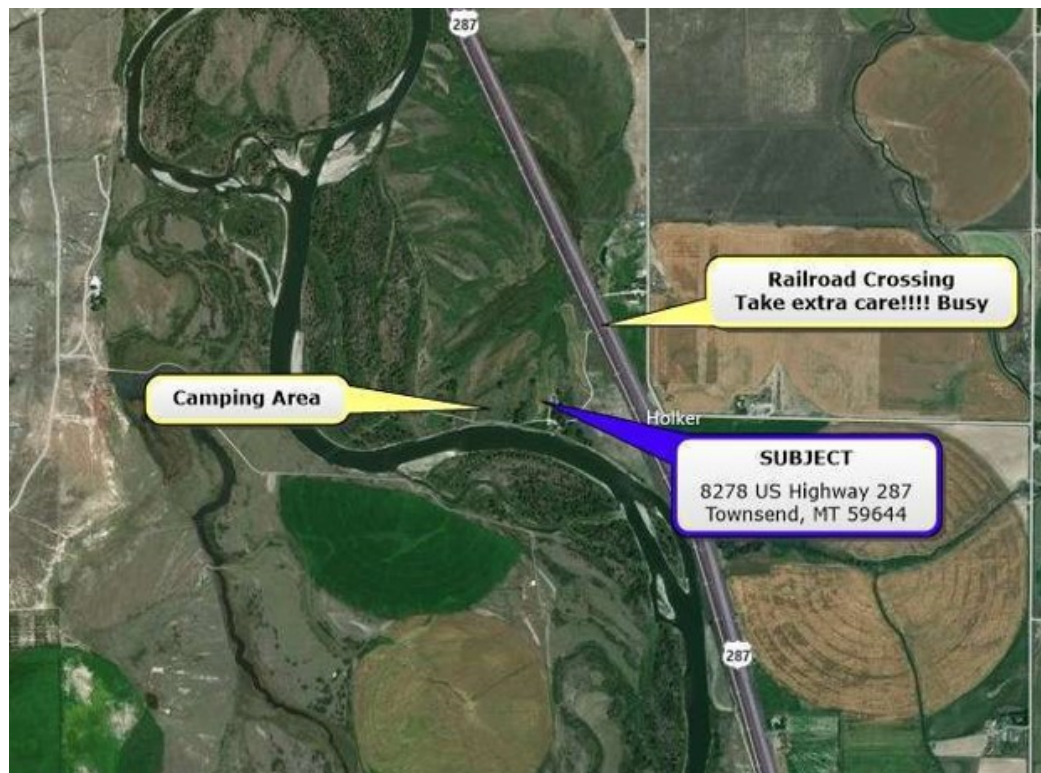

Thursday 5:30 Welcome Dinner. There is limited space so please do let us know if you are attending ($25/roast beef with trimmings on the grounds weather permitting).

We expect the courses to be approximately 30 flags out and 25 back for series work. We have exceptional opportunities for great third series courses/new each day in the woods by the river.

The river will be running at full or near full runoff, so don't let your dogs or kids fool around by the river. There are a few sloughs on the property that we may use for a water series if time permits.

Event LOCATION / MAP / DIRECTIONS

Moose to Goose Ranch
Townsend, MT
8278 US Highway 287
Townsend, MT 59644

From either East or West from Interstate 90 take Exit 274 then turn North on Highway 287 (stop for goodies at Wheat Montana first), then approximately 30 miles North. Left turn at entrance to property. Pay attention to mile markers and there are high transmission towers just past turn off. Please be extra careful crossing rail road tracks to the property.

All participants, observers and guests must sign a waiver. Follow signs to check-in. If you arrive late, we will have extra waivers in the field.

Our hosts live in there and have about a few hundred pet black bunnies. Make sure not to let dogs out unsupervised while in camping area. Signs will be out indicating camping area.

Training will be available from 12:00 to 3:00 on Thursday for anyone wanting to try out the cover. The land owner has requested a $15 per dog for training fee which we will collect. Reserve birds ahead of time (406) 570-3093.
