ADDITIONAL EVENT INFORMATION

Please remember that an article of blaze orange clothing is required in the field. The wearing of eye protection is strongly recommended as well!

Important Notices:

- As per ESSFTA guidelines, the courses have been inspected multiple times for the presence of hazardous grasses. While it is impossible to certify any field as being 100% clear of harmful plants, the field trial committee has had intensive surveying done and believes they have made reasonable efforts to minimize the risk of the presence of hazardous plant material.
- In accordance with AKC COVID "best practices", there will be no food available on the grounds. There are several restaurants in the nearby town of Mukwonago, which is less than a 10 minute drive. Hand sanitizer will be available at each end of the course and disinfecting wipes will be in the portapotties. If you are inclined to wear a mask while attending, please make sure to bring your own as we will not be providing any. In addition, please follow the practices that make you feel the most comfortable, whether it is maintaining physical distancing, remaining in your vehicle until you are about to be called to the line, or confining the consumption of refreshments to your car.

- By submitting your entry, you certify that you will not, to your knowledge, have COVID-19 at the time of attending this event. Nor will you have been in contact with or exposed to any known carrier of COVID-19 within 14 days prior to Nov. 7, 2020 and have no temperature or other common symptom(s). You understand that you have entered and are competing at this Southern Wisconsin Sporting Spaniel event entirely at your own risk and assume full responsibility for your own health and safety during this trial. Additionally, you agree that no members of the Southern Wisconsin Sporting Spaniel Club, the event judges or workers, are liable for any present or future COVID-19 exposure incurred at any time by any person, in attendance or not in attendance, during or after this event.
